WHY BE A CHURCH MEMBER?

1. Because God has instituted the church.

2. Church membership will do you great good.

3. To live apart from the church is to use your way, not God's.

4. Your neglect may grieve the Spirit.

5. Neglect may cause the loss of your soul, and that of others.

6. Because the church is your spiritual mother (Gal. 4:26) and it is shameful to neglect your mother.

7. The Apostle says "Forasmuch as the members of your body are together, as the members of one body."

8. Is there any valid reason why you should not?—Selected.

Last Thought Was His Mother.

To prevent his aged mother from being shocked by his terrible injuries sustained in an accident, John Grady of Belfast, when carried to his home the other day, began to sing with apparent light-heartedness. He was a timid man, and while repairing a wire current of 4,000 volts was accidentally turned into them. Both of Grady's arms were burned off near the elbow, and one leg was burned to the bone before he was rescued.

Favorite song of his aged mother, she came down to meet him, and he called to her cheerily that he had been slightly burned, and spared her the shock as much as he could. He died a few hours later.

DAYTON FAIR SEPTEMBER 6 TO 10TH.

"Never in its history has Montgomery county had a fair such as it will enjoy this year," declared Secretary I. L. Holdeman, in reviewing the plans that have been made for the entertainment of the people during the 1915 exhibition.

In number and excellence of exhibits, this year will be ahead of all others, he asserted.

Features have been arranged that it is expected will boost the attendance as never before.

One of the best days of the fair this year will be Wednesday, the secretary said. Several special features have been scheduled for that day. Among them is the Boys Live Stock Judging contest, at 9:30 a. m. In which a half hundred or more youths from all parts of the county will take part; the white baby show, in which numerous entries have already been made; childrens and soldiers day. This day all children of the county under 15 years of age will be admitted free to the grounds. All soldiers will also be admitted free, both to the grounds and to the grandstand and other concessions under direct control of the board. There will be a special tent erected under which a program suitable to the day will be rendered. Secretary Holdeman will give an ebony, gold-headed cane to the oldest soldier present, while President S. B. Mosby will present a silk umbrella to the youngest civil war veteran present.

Three harness races and a running race will be the features of the speed program of Wednesday afternoon. Music during the day will be furnished by the Brookville band.

One of the ground attractions that will be seen all week will be the perpendicular track motorcycle around the sides of which the riders will go at an angle of 90 degrees.

Judging of stock will take place Wednesday in the center of the field inside the race track.

Features already made in the horse department, more than two weeks in advance of the opening of the fair, have taken practically all the stable space available. The program now presenting itself to the management is now to save for those who will come in the time still remaining.

Several National Officers of Organization Will Address Ohio Members.
Governor Willis Will Also Speak.
Silk Banners To Be Awarded Granges. Showing Largest Attendance at Big Gathering Sept. 1-2.

The State Grange has arranged for a reunion at the Ohio State Fair this year covering two days—Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 1 and 2. As is well known, new life and new blood have been infused into the grange organization in the state. For several years the membership has been mounting up and it is now an important factor in matters agricultural in the state, with which wide-awake and aggressive farmers are anxious to become identified. Hon. L. J. Taber, the master of the State Grange, has issued a call for the reunion, and the management of the State Fair has encouraged it by offering prizes for large attendance. There are three such prizes offered. For the largest attendance from any local grange in Franklin county a silk flag is offered.
Franklin county granges have an advantage due to location; that, of course, puts them in a class by themselves. The second prize offered is also a silk flag to be given to the grange in any other county within fifty miles of Columbus that records the largest attendance. The third is a silk flag to be given to the grange located outside the fifty-mile limit from Columbus. Registration will be the test, and so all visiting members of the grange should be sure to register their names and the names and numbers of the granges of which they are members in the book that will be provided at the reunion headquarters. Actual registration will decide the awards of the flags. These trophies will be exactly alike, of fine quality and similar to the trophy given to the champion speller of the state, as decided by the State Spelling Bee held a few months ago under the direction of the state agricultural commission.

There will be a number of notable addresses at the grange reunion—all well worth hearing, and on topics of special interest to farmers. Master L.
J. Taber has invited the national grand master, Mr. Wilson of Illinois, and State Master McSparran of Pennsylvania to attend the reunion, and speak to the Ohio Grangers, and both have accepted the invitation. The best program ever presented by the grange at the State Fair is now assured. Mr.
Taber, the master of the Ohio Grange, will be in charge of the meeting.

In his call the state master states that the last six months have constituted the greatest period of grange growth in forty years. In that time, sixty-six granges have been established and more than six thousand farmers, their wives, sons and daughters have become members.

Governor Willis has also accepted

MEMBERS NEW STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE

The ten men shown in the above picture have been selected by Governor Willis as the first state board of agriculture, as established by the law passed by the recently adjourned session of the legislature. Reading from left to right, the members in the picture are the following:

First row: S. Myers, Akron; Donald R. Acklin, Piquette; C. K. Patterson, Piquette; D. D. Snider, Grandison; John B. Columbus Grove; Rear row: T. D. West, Perry; Dr. J. W. Kegan, Cincinnati; C. A. Branson, Cincinnati; Bunnell, Lebanon; and R. D. Williamson, Xenia.

In making these selections Governor Willis took counsel with the officers of the State Grange, with the leaders of the many organizations of farmers and stock breeders of the state, and men generally prominent in the state. The board will have larger powers and greater responsibility than any other such board ever held office under the state government. The first great task to devolve upon its shoulders will be the direction of the State Fair.

An invitation to attend the grange reunion to speak. A score of Ohio farm workers will be called into action at the reunion. The reunion is to be held at Grange Hall on the fair grounds. Members of the grange who visit the fair are urged to find their way to this hall immediately upon reaching the ground and make themselves known by registering.

Fine Program.
A fine program for the two days has been arranged. On the first day, the exercises beginning at 1:30 p. m., Mrs. Harriet Dickinson, lecturer of the reunion.

There will be a round-table discussion of the subject, "The Grange and the Home"—those taking part after the discussion is open being Dr.
Mary Anderson, John Cunningham, J.
M. Kilberry, John Begg, C. P. Green, George E. Scott, George T. Watts and E. F. Crane. The afternoon exercises will be closed with an address by Hon.
John A. McSparran, master of the Pennsylvania State Grange.

On Thursday, the second day of the reunion, Hon. L. J. Taber, the master of the State Grange, will preside. The subject of the round-table discussion for this day will be "The Grange and the Farm." The subject will be discussed by F. A. Derthick, T. O. Laylin, J. B. Smith, R. W. Dunlap and Harry Eaton.

The exercises on the second day will begin, as on the first, at 1:30 p. m. The round-table discussion will be followed by an address by C. M. Freeman, the secretary of the National Grange. At 2:30 p. m. Governor Willis is to arrive and address the guests at the reunion. The program will be concluded with the address of Hon.
Oliver Wilson, the master of the National Grange.

The call of the state master for the reunion closes with these familiar words: "As soon as you get on the grounds go to Grange Hall. Take your friends with you. Feel at home. It is yours. Meet and greet old friends and offer the fraternal hand to our many new converts. Don't forget the best help in your partnership, the best farmer, and will use the most of the fair. But if you can't both come, stay at home and send her."

Remember, Brother Patrons, the farmers of Ohio and America must lead and choose the world. The second of destiny has opened the door of opportunity. Go in and possess the land! The first move is to boost the State Fair and the grange reunion. If you make it the greatest in the history of our state, it will prove that you are fighting for agriculture and humanity."

WORK IS DIVIDED.
Members of Agricultural Board to Superintend Departments at State Fair.

The State Board of Agriculture has made the following assignment of members to be in charge of the ten departments into which the State Fair is divided:

Horse department—Don R. Acklin.
Speed department—C. E. Patterson.
Cattle—C. A. Branson. Swine—Newton B. Bunnell. Sheep—E. D. Williamson. Agricultural and Horticultural Products—T. B. West. Machinery—J.
E. Myers. Women's Work and Art—Dr. J. W. Kegan. Poultry—D. D.
Snider.

Each member in charge will have a superintendent of the department under him, but these have not yet been appointed.

progress that the state fair and game department is making in the propagation of game birds and fish will be shown.

State Warden Speaks will also have on exhibition a large number of illegal devices for taking game birds, animals and fish that have been found by deputy wardens and confiscated under the law. In the course of a year a vast store of such illegal property comes into the hands of the state warden—much evidence of the efficiency of the department.

STATE FAIR NOTES.
Band concerts daily.
A cattle show beyond compare.
Live stock buildings unrivalled in the world.
Beautiful displays of the fruits of Buckeye soil.

EXHIBIT OF LIVE FISH
AND BIRDS.
An entirely new feature of the State Fair this year will be an exhibition of live game birds, and perhaps also of live fish. Secretary Dunlap has made arrangements for such interesting exhibitions through General John C. Spinks, state fish and game warden, whose work is now under the direction of the State Board of Agriculture.
Hitherto such exhibitions have been made of only mounted birds and fish.

Third Department—Swine.
Tuesday, Aug. 31—Polish, Chester Whites and Tamworths.
Wednesday, Sept. 1—Poland Chinas and Spotted Poland Chinas.
Thursday, Sept. 2—Yorkshires, Hamp-shires, Meats, Pinks, and Dorsets.

Fourth Department—Sheep.
Monday, Aug. 30—Merinos, Class A, French Merinos, Class B, Oxford Downs, Hampshire Downes.
Tuesday, Aug. 31—Merinos, Classes B and C, Shropshires, Ohio Red Shropshires, South Downes.
Wednesday, Sept. 1—Cotswolds, Lincolnshires, French Merinos, Class C.
Thursday, Sept. 2—Dorsets, Tunis, Fat Sheep.

Fifth Department—Poultry.
Examinations for premium awards will begin Monday, Aug. 30.
Sixth Department—Pigs, Poultry.
Sunday, Aug. 30.
Seventh Department—Horticultural Products.
Examinations for premium awards will begin Tuesday, Aug. 31.
Eighth Department—Machinery, and Agricultural Implements.
Continuous exhibitions. No premium competition.
Ninth Department—Mechanics and Manufacturers' Products.
Continuous exhibitions. No premium
competition.
Tenth Department—Merchandise, Music,
Etc.
competition.
Eleventh Department—Women's Work.
Examinations for premium awards will
begin Monday, Aug. 30.
Twelfth Department—Fine Arts.
Examinations for premium awards will
begin Tuesday, Aug. 31.

Free instruction will be given in the art of butter and cheese making in the new Dairy building at the Ohio State fair at Columbus.

AUTOMOBILES WILL BE ADMITTED FREE AT OHIO STATE FAIR; PARKAGE PROVIDED

RECOGNIZING the general use into which the automobile has come as a means of transportation and in anticipation that many visitors to the State Fair—even from considerable distances—will make the trip by such conveniences, the State Board of Agriculture has decided to omit this year the fifty-cent fee that has been exacted for the privilege of taking an automobile into the fair grounds. They will not only be admitted free this year, but arrangements will be made for the convenient and safe parking of the cars inside the grounds. Those who use this means of reaching the grounds may come feeling assured that all reasonable gains will be taken by the State Fair management to provide ample parking space and to police it so that orderly entrance and exit from the park may be made at all times and minimum danger of injury to machines and delay in movement.

This does not mean that the management is to be responsible for the absolute protection of machines from damage or theft, but that reasonable care will be taken to make this property, when taken into the grounds, safe from the dangers that would naturally surround them under such circumstances.

LEGAL NOTICE

Common Pleas Court, Greene County, Ohio.

Ollie M. Best vs. Charles H. Best.
Charles H. Best, residence unknown, will take notice that June 2nd, 1915, said Ollie M. Best filed in said Court her petition for divorce against him upon the grounds of gross neglect of duty, habitual drunkenness and extreme cruelty, and that the same will be for hearing at the court house in Xenia on August 10, 1915, at 9 a. m., or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, by which time defendant must answer or demur to said petition or judgment may be taken against him.

Ollie M. Best, Plaintiff.

D. S. ERVIN.

Mr. George Steel, aged 77, one of the leading colored citizens died Monday of organic heart trouble after a long illness. The deceased was born at Versailles, Ky., and has lived here many years, since serving in the Civil War. The only surviving member of his family is his aged wife. The funeral was held Wednesday from the Baptist church.

Miss Marguerite McFarland has returned home after an extended visit with relatives in Greenville.

Mr. O. E. Bradfute shipped several head of cattle a few days ago that were sold last fall but were held up owing to the quarantine restrictions. Fancy cattle breeders are not taking much chance this fall on attending fairs at a distance for fear of an outbreak of some kind and all the cattle he held under quarantine. It is said that parts of Indiana and Illinois are now under quarantine. If the present restrictions continue for a few years breeders of blooded cattle, sheep and hogs will be forced out of business.

A number of the members of the Home Club, which were entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F. M. Reynolds in Xenia. At noon a delicious two course dinner was served. Those from here were: Mesdames Harry Townsend, S. C. Wright, Walter Hill, Thomas Tarbox, Robert Townsley, George Wiaters, H. M. Stormont, Fred Olemans, Martha Northup, James Matthews, Willard Trout, J. W. Patton, A. G. Evelyn, Mrs. G. H. Hartman and Miss Katherine McGiven.

O. P. Mitman, of Osborn, was chosen for a five year term as a member of the County Board of Education last Saturday. Mr. Mitman had served the one year term and this expired. It is reported that under a law passed last spring there will likely be some changes as to supervision, a number of the superintendents losing their places owing to the restrictions in number. The local board must also add another instructor for the high school to maintain the grade of the school.

Mr. Howard S. Fowler, whose death occurred last week in Arizona where he has spent nearly four years in the hope of improving his health, was buried from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fowler, Wednesday. The body arrived Tuesday accompanied by his sisters Misses Ethel and Laura, who have been with him. The deceased was 36 years of age and was a young man of sterling character whose fight against tuberculosis was in vain. Besides the father and mother five sisters and two brothers mourn his loss. The funeral exercises were in charge of Rev. W. J. Sanderson and burial took place at Massie Creek.
